

GLEASON TO BE HERE SATURDAY

Hard Hitting Boxer Who Meets Champ Sudenberg At Bliss Expected Soon.

Arriving in time to do some preliminary training for the benefit of El Paso fans who desire to get a line on his fighting ability Johnny (Kid) Gleason, lately of the Fourth artillery will reach El Paso Saturday for his fight with champion Sudenberg at Ft. Bliss Monday, April 23, according to word received Tuesday by Lieut. "Doc" Rothermund, athletic officer of the Seventh cavalry. Gleason is at present training at his home in Corpus Christi, Tex., and judging from reports is handing out a stiff lesson to some of his sparring partners who happen to stand in the way of his efforts. The match is at catch weight and neither boxer will have to make weight.

Fans Back Sudenberg. Gleason from all accounts is a sturdy, hard hitting boy who is looked upon by his admirers as the one man who is capable of taking Johnny Sudenberg's championship away from the swift soldier. But the latter also has his backers and there are several thousand soldiers in the El Paso district not to speak of a number of civilian fans who are willing to wager that Gleason is defeated and that the heavy mitt of the favorite from Corpus Christi's Tompkins' regiment will be raised to the sky at the end of the encounter. No wagers on Gleason have appeared locally as yet but it is probable that a number of adherents will accompany him to this city.

Completes Training Card. Lieut. Rothermund Tuesday afternoon completed the entire card for the night's entertainment, having signed the hardest hitting and fastest boxer in the district for the preliminary fight in the semi-main event.

CLOSE CONTEST
IN 24TH LEAGUE

Teams Are Bunched at Top Of Column for the Leadership.

Columbus, N. M., April 22.—Below is the standing of the company teams in the regimental baseball league of the 24th U. S. Infantry. On April 2, the league opened for the 1919 season with a game between two teams of the third battalion, "K" and "M." With the single exception of company "L" each of the 12 teams enrolled in the league has played one game to date. The scheduled game between "L" and "I" on April 3 was postponed because of an unforeseen event, company "K" filling the breach.

Recruits to particular are coming to the point, the chances of appearing in individual athletic contests in real league ball, being most appealing and appetizing to the recruits.

for six rounds, weight 142 pounds. Sontag of motor truck train 401 met Fisher of H troop, Seventh Cavalry. The third preliminary will be fought by Red Hogan of El Paso and Desmarais of the Seventh cavalry in a six round go. The weight will be 151 pounds. Rivalry Casey of El Paso and Hattling Sampson of the Eighth engineers will meet with the third battle in the second attraction while "Wagner" Garden and Kid Shapiro will clash in the curtain raiser. The weight in the first two bouts will be 144 pounds.

As Events Matched. The headline bout of the evening will, of course, be between Sudenberg and Gleason. All of the preliminaries are exceptionally well matched and will be hard in select men combat which stands out above the others. The Casey-Sampson go is sure to be a number as it is the third meeting of the two men. Red Hogan and Desmarais are two snappy, hard hitting little men, while local fight fans are well acquainted with the ability of Sontag who meets Fisher. All in all the card is exceptionally well balanced.

Tickets will be placed on sale tonight at the leading sporting goods stores and hotels.

TEAM MANAGERS
MEET THURSDAY

Will Decide on Organization of City and Army Baseball Leagues.

Thursday night El Paso-army and civilian baseball managers will assemble at the office of Maj. T. J. McCann in the Marine building and discuss important issues relative to the organization of the city league. It is planned to inaugurate the schedule of the league on May 3, Saturday and Sunday games being provided for in the event the league is made a six club circuit. Harry Kane, organizer of the league will preside at the meeting and will advise the managers of the cooperation which has been assured by the city council which plans to make improvements at Rio Grande park.

Many Teams to Enter. When the meeting is called to order it is expected that at least six teams will be represented. The outfits and their managers are expected to be the following: Zone Supply office, Maj. James H. Conlin, Seventh Cavalry, Lieut. "Doc" Rothermund, Eighth engineers, Maj. R. K. Neeland, Ninth engineers or Fifth cavalry and two civilian teams managed respectively by Duty and Juan Gomez. Officers to serve during the season will be elected at the meeting and a committee appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws. Plans will also be made for the adoption of a schedule.

During the past few days there has been considerable speculation as to the number of teams in the league. Consensus of opinion favors six clubs. It is pointed out that with six teams in the league one game could be held Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning and a doubleheader staged for the benefit of the fans on Sunday afternoon. Whether the league will be of six teams or not seems to hinge on the entrance of another army team and organizer Kane stated Tuesday that he felt no apprehensions on this score. This team would make it a six team circuit including the Zone Supply office.

The team from this organization promises to be one of the most popular and best backed of the entire league. Certainly such a business institution as it can well be called, of any other establishment in El Paso should be entitled to consideration in the matter of entering a team. The personnel of the Zone office approximates 1500 names weekly and it is pointed out that a strong team can be selected from that number.

Major Leagues Begin Schedules.
New York, April 22.—With prospects for a prosperous season more encouraging than for several years past, the National and American baseball leagues this afternoon began their 1919 schedules in eight different cities. The opening game in the National league was the match between the St. Louis Cardinals and the St. Louis Browns. A delayed start was made this season by virtue of the fact that but 149 games are called for in the schedule formulated at the annual meeting of the managers last year.

Defensive Art of Boxing to Be Taught at the High School

BOXING classes, not to teach aggression but for the purpose of exercise and of defending themselves when faced to do so were started Tuesday afternoon for pupils of the high school at the school gymnasium by Prof. Jack McDonald who has had considerable experience as an instructor of the many art in eastern schools. About 25 students attended the opening class but this number was constantly augmented and it is believed that at least 100 young boys from all classes of the high school will be in the gymnasium when the second class is begun next Monday afternoon.

Makes Strong Mind. One of the first things told the students by Mr. McDonald was that he was not teaching them to fight but to defend themselves whenever necessary. "A strong body makes a strong mind and this is made by constant exercise of the muscles of the shoulders and chest," he said, "make the heart strong." These lessons are intended purely as an exercise and you should not become engaged in a fight unless it is necessary to defend yourself. There is no better exercise than properly conducted boxing.

Defensive Tactics. Instruction in defensive tactics occupied the greater part of the first lesson, the little fellows being taught how to strike with their hands closed and to judge distance by shadow boxing, a big mat at one end of the wall. Gloves were then placed on each of the largest boys and they boxed cleverly for several minutes under the coaching of McDonald. The greatest problem in the teaching of the students to hold the right hand in the position of defense while the left is extended from the side, both as a protective and aggressive measure.

To Bring Gloves. At the end of the class of instruction Prof. McDonald made a canvass of the number of students who were provided with boxing gloves, and urged them to bring the gloves at the next class meeting in order that several practice bouts being arranged between students of the same size and weight. Much enthusiasm has been created among the students by the starting of the classes and no less than eight sets of gloves were promised by the end of the first class.

All of these entered in the classes were cautioned about the use of their hands by Mr. McDonald who stated that an injury to either hand is a serious thing to the boxer.
